

(SN 40982006) (ROSS (LB) (SITE OF)

O.S. 25" 1936

"No trace of a cross remains and no information was obtained concerning one"

J.R. Foster F.I. 23.3.66
(O.S. CARDS)

The only explanation I can offer for this cross appearing on the O.S. map is that a cross appears to stand in the area on Speeds map (1610).

See R.C.A.M p. 252-3

Another explanation is that the Market cross (Site N° 67) (on the Stake at which Ferrars was martyred) was removed to Lymmas St only to be moved again to Aberjaila Church in 1843.

(See Site 67)

Dr Ferrars, Bishop of St. David's. was accused of heresy & burnt at the stake at the High Cross on 30th March 1555.
