

The mutilated remains of a Circular Cairn, which has been cut on its NE Side by a Field boundary wall, situated at the edge of a Pasture Field, owned by MR Phillips of Glandy mawr farm.

The Site consists of a low mound c. 15 metres in diameter, c. 5m high with the remains of a stone circle consisting of 11 small upright stones, leaning outwards from the mound. Several other stones show up through the surface of the mound inside this circle. The mound is in a good condition, apart from slight bracken cover on its eastern side.
