Capel Cawy

Site of Church

1119

There is no trace of any ecclesiastical building here. See Owen's Pembrokeshire, I, 96 and 509. There is a field called PARC CAPEL (on the east side of the homestead) with a good spring in it, and the occupant informed us that the churchyard is said to have been in this field.

Small rectangle in field below farm and near stream - seen by J.T. Jones, Curator, Carm. Museum, in May 1969, after receiving information from Mr. Lewis, former schoolmaster at Maenclochog.
