

An inscribed stone, 1m high.
Standing in the western end of St.
Clydwens churchyard, next to several large yew trees. A cross with a wheel head is incised on its west face with the lines of the cross shaft continuing into the ground, slight lichen growth on the stone, otherwise, well looked after,
and in a good condition.

AS Maull
15/3/84.

Inscribed stone 1140

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

St. Clydwens
15/3/84