

1 No. 13      Parc-y-Prat      Manor House      1229

The first mention we have of this old nest of the Davies family is the entry in the Pedigrees to the effect that "David Thomas, of Parc-y-Prat married Janet, daughter of Sir James Bowen, Knight." Sir James was of Pentre Evan, and his son Owen ap Owen served as Sheriff in 1545. The old house stood some 300 yards below the present homestead, and was surrounded by trees, several of which remain. There is nothing left of the mansion but some rough walling and an out-house which has been converted into a cottage.
