

COMMENT

AUTHORITY

36 No. 1

Llwch Meilyr or Llech Meilyr

12346

The supposed home of one of the "men of St. Davids who accompanied Strongbow to Ireland" Fenton p. 36, says:" Llech Meilyr, built by a chieftain of the name of Meilyr, of the House of Bleddyn ap Cynfyn, who joining some of the auxiliary armies from Powys settled in this country, and laid the foundation of a family of some consequence of the name of Bowen, whose sole heiress, Catherine, married John Scourfield Esq. of New Moat."
