

East Dudwells

The second round chimney, at East Dudwell (36), Camrose, is a splendid conical specimen attached to a small building with an ogee window and doorway. This well maintained example is of special interest lying as it does so close to the Landsker, that significant linguistic demarcation line.