

20 No. 7

Trellwyn

Cromlech

1420

This cromlech was destroyed about the year 1844. The Rev. T.G. Mortimer remonstrated with the destroyer, and with the view of inducing him to desist reminded him of the old saying that ill-luck befel those who destroyed the "Druids' Altars". Some years afterwards the vandal admitted that the houses he had built of the stones had not brought him good luck!

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS