Henblas is clearly marked on this map, ~~the~~ on the site of the present day No. 26 Bridge Street (OS map, 25", 1968, SN4106). The building is the same shape on both maps although the OS record no visible remains at this site.

Two medieval Town houses are noted (this being one the other unclear) thought to be amongst the oldest houses in Wales. They were partly reduced pre 1900 and swept away after 1945.
