

See Arch Camb, 1893, 5th series, Vol 10, p. 39 on. for a list of farms/granges/land etc belonging to the Abbey.

" The large bell of the Abbey was sold in 1773 to assist the parishioners, and was now in Exeter Cathedral, and went by the name of "Big Tom". Arch Camb 1893 p. 80 founded by Robert Martin, c.1100-1135, Henry 1st. Speed + TCASFC.

The remains used for the rebuilding of the church, now very inconsiderable: consist of little more than a building which appears to have been a chapel, now converted into a barn, and a high wall, which formed one side of a tower.

Lewis/S/1833/Topog Dict Wales.

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS