

Penpistyll is an uninhabited cottage constructed from rough-cut stone, with grey slate roof. The condition of the cottage is reasonably sound but is deteriorating through being empty.

L. Weeks DAT.
March 1985

See GP 63-56A front elevation