

TWYN FARM

RENOVATED FARMHOUSE

MODERN BRICK

WATER
WHEEL
HOUSING

MILL

40 m.
APPROX

WATER CHANNEL

POND

THE MILL

SHUTE
FOR WATER
WHEEL

HOLES WHERE BEAMS FOR EXTERNAL LOFT WERE POSITIONED

PLATFORM

The mill building was built on a platform out of rough stone and slate. None of the original mechanisms were visible, only the wheel housing and water duct could be seen. The water was left in a deep well after leaving the water wheel. The wheel was driven from a pond opposite the house, the water was channelled under the yard and into the wheel house.

S. Griffiths DAT
28th March 1985