

COMMENT

AUTHORITY

Esgeryd is a complex of three buildings. The building furthest up the slope, barn(?), was rectangular in shape with rough stone construction walls and a gabled grey slate roof. The two gabled ends remain in good condition but both front and back walls have been damaged by fallen trees.

S. Griffiths DAT
March 27th 1985

Esgeryd Complex

barn(?)

lean to?

