

2 storey large dwelling with Thatched Roof and 2 thatched entrance porches at the front. The dwelling is probably C17 and has been recently restored. The construction is stone, rendered and colourwashed (pink-) Mulhamed windows.

The house is used as a committee/ executive suite and part of it is used as a museum of the steel industry in Harwell.

porch

porch

Two cottages called 'Maesardalen Fach' cottages were destroyed when the steel works was built. (See Title no. 301)