

Castell Wawillanau is a motte 4m high with a well preserved ditch except at the east side where it is slight. There is a saucer shaped depression 1.5m deep at the top.

Some animal erosion, especially at the NE side where a groove 4.4m wide and 0.56m deep has been cut into the summit.

The motte is overgrown with trees and blackthorn. There is no trace of a bailey.

ER Evans

14/2/84

NO EVIDENCE OF RECENT DISURBANCE OR DAMAGE

E. MORGAN FEB 1986

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

G. Thomas, Wawillanau Uchaf, Penlan Rd, Carmarthen. 14/2/84