

Crug-bach round bottom standing on a good site of preservation although its southern end is obscured by several coniferous trees. The rest of the barrow stands clear of trees in a fine break in the ground level mound is covered by bracken & coarse and has the remains of a old find hedge crossing it in a E-W direction

A.S. Hall
9:2:84

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

Economic Forestry Group 9:2:1984