

51 No. 2

Poll Carn

Camp

2466

The crag termed by the Ordnance men POLL CARN, but usually known as the Lion Rock, has around its base a camp which escaped the notice of the Ordnance Surveyors. On the north and south sides there is a single foss and vallum; on the east a stone CHEVAUX DE FRISE resembling that at Moel Trigarn, but on a much smaller scale.