Llanwnda

Church and Inscribed Stones

2523, 89623

The church is said to have been founded by Gwyndaf Hen a 6th century saint. During the restoration of this church some years ago a doorway was discovered in the wall so high up that it is supposed to have been the entrance to a gallery approached by an outside stair.

PEMBROKESHIREST GWYNDAF'S CHURCH, Llanwnda (SM 9321 3958) 2523

A previously unrecorded embossed outline cross is built into the external wall of the church, to the west of the porch. (DAT PRN 8968).
