

- 38 No. 1

Buckett

Camp

2586

- This camp has two unusual and interesting features. Evidently a place intended for defensive purposes, yet it is not built out to and advantage taken of a natural escarpment immediately on its southern side. On the west side there are parallel banks covering an entrance. The diameter of the enclosure is about 80 yards. It was once larger but much of it has been destroyed.

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

Mr. A. M. RICHARDS,
BUCKETT FARM,
LESTERSTON,
THE HAVERGOLD WEST.