

CERWYN DEWI, or "David's Mash Tun". There is a tradition that all the mortar used in building the Cathedral was wetted with "breici" (unfermented beer) instead of water. The name CERWYN DEWI may possibly be connected with this story.

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS