

71 No. 10

Midland

Island

2938

After careful search no hut foundation, flint chips or water were discovered. It is noteworthy that Lewis Morris, in his plan of St. Bride's Bay, 1748, confounds Midland with the Neck of Skomer. In my copy (which for many generations was used as a sailing chart in a coasting vessel) this is corrected "Middle Holm".