

73 No. 1

Talbenny

Church

3143

There is a bell cote for two bells, one of which has a dedicatory inscription to the Virgin. The base only of the old font exists. A stone bench stands on each side of the chancel. A small brass on the floor states that some inscribed stones, one a very ancient tombstone discovered when the chancel was rebuilt, were BURIED AGAIN under the tiled floor.
