

77 No. 12

Pill

Priory

3176

For the Priory, see Dugdale, IV, 502. It was dedicated to St. Budoc afterwarrrd St. Mary was prefixed. It was originally, like St. Dogmaels, of the order of Tiron. The church was cruciform, but only an arch of the central tower and some fragments of walling remain. The monastery graveyard was found early in the 19th century.