

WITHIN THE AREA OF THE TOWN WALL, AND DISTINCT

FROM IT, WAS A MARKED AREA CALLED 'CASTLE TOWN'.

(See Rec No 2350)

Castletown probably represents an early phase in the growth of the town

'On the other side of the road, opp. this road in High St, there is a massive wall 8 ft thick, running the full length of this house, and in the back wall of this house there is a large round arch, now plastered over, which previously formed part of one of the outer gates of the castle.
