

COMMENT

AUTHORITY

60 No. 10

Haverford

Church of St. Thomas

the Martyr

3327

Thomas a Becket was a favourite saint at Haverford. Was it out of compliment to Henry II who spent a considerable time in this town? For notes see "Haverfordwest" on this sheet (60 No. 6)

60 No. 10

Haverford

Churchyard (St. Thomas

the Martyr) - Coins

3327

In this churchyard a series of silver coins have at various periods been unearthed; they range from Henry III to William III. See Little England, 390.