

COMMENT

AUTHORITY

67 No. 5

Grove

House

3619

It seems probable that this house was named after Grove, Pembroke, where Colonel John Poyer lived. The family originally came from Narberth, and after the Colonel's death some members returned. In 1690, Dan Poyer, gent. of teh Grove, Narberth, conveyed certain lands to John Gibb, yeoman of Templeton. See papers in the possession of the Bishop of Llandaff.