

Legend?

"Miss Curtis, refers to the finding of a gold urn of early date, and to various local legends incident to the church & its surroundings."

Treherne. G. 7.

1907 Arch. Camb. 6th series,
Vol. 7, p. 277—

ORIGINALY Parish Church of LLANDAWKE

Services only held at Xmas and Easter etc. Church as described by RCATHM (1) is No trace of second 'original' font but churchyard heavily overgrown.

(1) Carm. Inq. 1917 No. 232

J1 8-5-85

Small Gothic church with C13 origins and later C14 remodelling by Sir Guy De Brian, the Lord Marcher & Laugharne. Victorian restoration Partly overgrown at the time of inspection (January 1988)

CADW 1988