— 13 No. 5 Penrydd Holy Well 5086

- A woman living in the cottage known as Ffynon Ddwysaint informed us — that the holy well was not her cottage well, but a spring that rose — in a cornfield just over the way, to the south of the road, and that — the name "Two Saints" was derived from "Ddwy fenywdda" (two holy or — good women) who had lived there by the well.
