

101 No. 4

Linney Burrows

Tumulus

536

In this was a very large cistvaen, containing two bodies, male and female, in a sitting position. They were covered with a large flag stone and with them were burnt bones and shells. The female cranium is in the Tenby Museum.

See 624

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS