Prob. named after the same 'line of long low ridges' as Pave y Beddau, Inv. No. 173 (1)	1 (1) / MM LIST / RCAHM / RCAHM / 1976 / 12 C, PE.
Visited by J H Williams, 26/4/77 A small field at SN 24853144 is traditionally the site of a cemetery (2). Field under cultivation (garden plots), nothing found by owner.	(2) Info. Mr N Williams, Henfeddau Fawr, Clydey. J H Williams 28/4/77

- 28 No. 3 Henfeddau Grave-like Mounds 5200
- These are in Carmarthenshire, but so near the boundary that Fenton
- p. 484, visited them, and we followed his steps. They look more
- like mounds raised over the dead slain in a modern fight than pre-
- historic tumuli.
