

Roman Road west from Caernarthen.

Possibly following the course of the present B4298 through Meidrim the 1:25,000 map actually gives this stretch the name Via Julia and there are several farm names in the area picking up this feature eg Sarnau, Pan-yr-heol, Sarn-y-bwl, Caerlleon

In TCRSFC Vol 12, p.31 p2 there is a mention of the ~~possible~~ course of the Roman Road west of Caernarthen, the writer states that there was a Roman mile stone ^{found (see also Pentre Mersig)} and that further on towards Abennant just short of a farm called Upper Nant-y-Ci there is a Roman pavement? The place names are found on SN32 SE
