

House standing on site of 17th house.

94 No. 9

Welston

Site of old house 6645

Site of the home of Walter Cuney, in which he is said to have entertained Oliver Cromwell during the siege of Pembroke in 1648. Fenton states that in his time a lady, who was descended from the house of Cuney, preserved a quilted counterpane lined with crimson which Oliver had stained with ink while writing his despatches in bed. Fenton, 273.

The seat of George Danne Esq. S. Lewis 1833