

2 story, gabled roof, round chimney.

Rhosson

The famous group of round chimney houses around St. Davids (listed and illustrated at the beginning of this century by J. Romilly Allen in "Archaeologia Cambrensis") is best typified today by Rhosson (27) on the road from the city to St. Justinians, its massive conical chimney forming a conspicuous landmark.