

Pond, constructed of Limestone & Sandstone blocks, still standing to a height of about 5 metres, with a average thickness of 0.65m. It is still in a good state of Preservation, although a few trees are growing inside it. A small Post hole cut into the wall, the Pond lies next to a small stream

A. S. Maul
NOV. 1983

