A weekly market is recorded between 1328 and 1347 and in the early 14th C Abergwili consisted of a town of some 25 Burgenes + 53 Burgages (Burgage - curtilage, Burgen - plot of ground lying near or belonging to a dwelling house)

Rev. D. Jenkins 1936
Abergwili + its Parish Church

An old road, predating the college PRN 2761, led to the parish church PRN 5372 from the main road.
From the church it passed through the churchyard along the bottom of the Palace grounds to the Bishops Pond, then by the river to the railway track through Bwlch Bach and out to the Old Road and on to White Mill. This road was diverted when the college PRN 2761 was built ref to a battle fought c.1017-31 from "Brak y Tywysogion" This was sep. PRN 10620
