

COMMENT

AUTHORITY

60 No. 13

Haverford

Record Office

8639

To the westward of St. Mary's Church is an ancient building, the basement of which is used as a fish market, and in the upper storey are "Rotuli" of the Court of Quarter Sessions. This was formerly the Prothonotary's office. There are pillars in this structure that may be of the Early English period.