

11 No. 11 Penybenglog Camp 981

Castle Llwyd is a fresh water "cliff castle", two lines of a bank and ditch cutting off a piece of land protected on the south by a declivity.

An inland promontory defended by a single bank, ditch & counter-scarp on the north side and natural slopes on the south, east & west

JH 1997 based on Cadw 1997.

OWNERSHIP AND TENANCY DETAILS

SITE NO

NOR

PARISH

SITE NAME

GENERIC TYPE

SITE VALUE

DESCRIP TYPE

PERIOD

Form/Condition *

CULTURE

ALTITUDE

AREA

GEOLOGY

SOIL TYPE

LAND USE

SITE STATUS

AREA STATUS

ACCESS

OWNERSHIP

HISTORY/Form/Name/Date *

VISIT/Name/Date *

ARTIFACT RECORD

(Type/Material)

coll:n no

Notes/Remarks *

KEYWORDS

SITE SOURCE

RECORD

PM

initials/date

information *