In a rectangular compound on the south side of an un-named minor road in the same field as the St. Twynnell's R6 Rotor Radar blockhouse. The bungalow alongside is the rotor guardhouse.

LOCKED All surface features remain intact with the green paint flaking. The hatch is unusually rusty and is locked. Internally the post is clean and dry with the following items remaining: table, shelf, cupboard, wooden shelf above the instrument table, FSM mount, BPI mount, WB1401 carrier receiver with WB1410 filter unit, Tele-talk, teapot, saucepan, small splint, plastic cups, bowl, old GPO battery, dustpan/brush, spade, pick axe and a candle holder.

Opened in 1960 and closed in 1991.
