

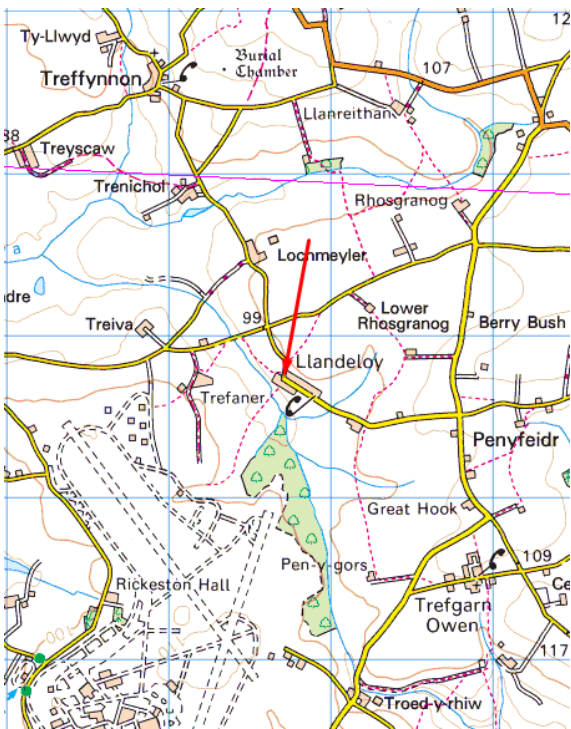

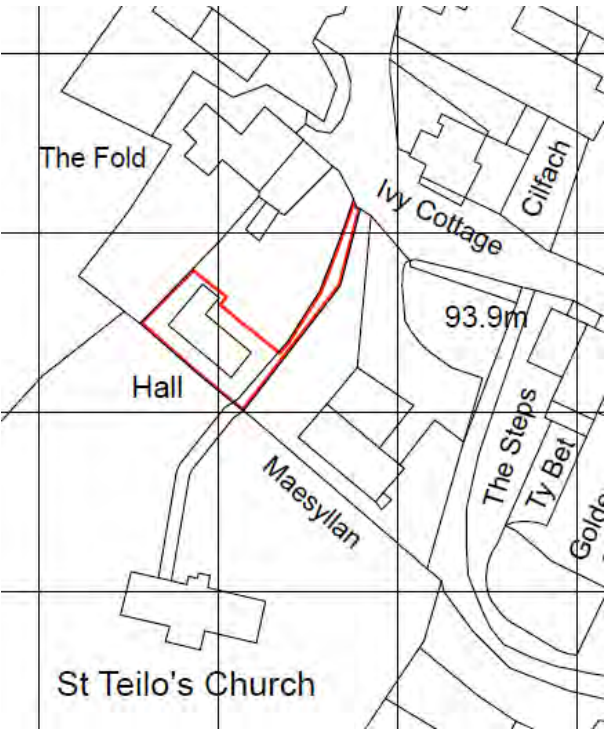

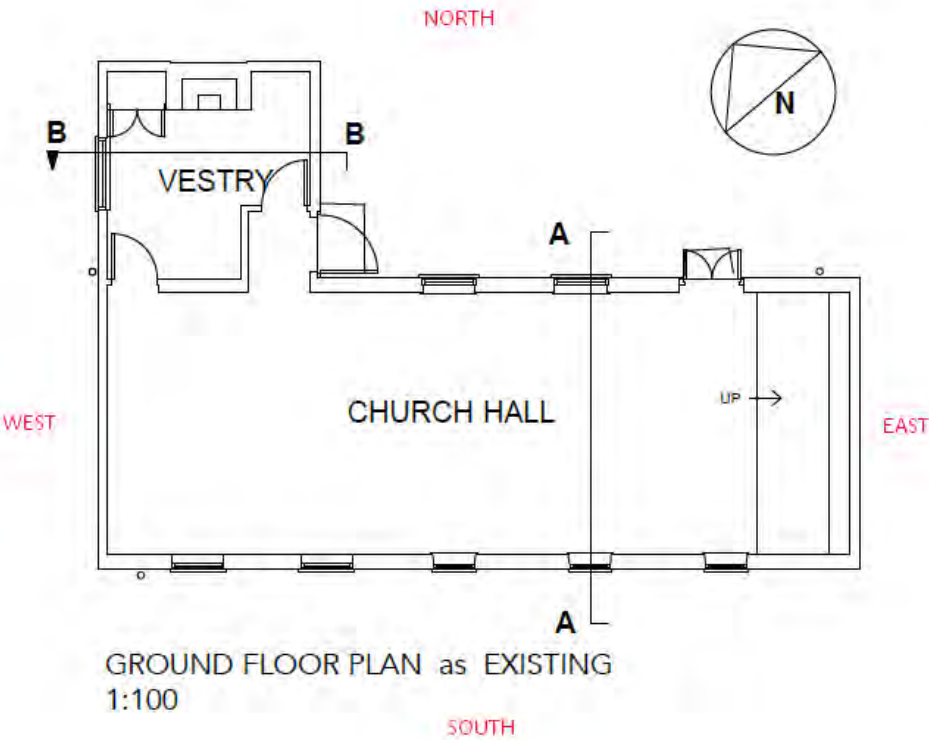

Photographic survey of Llandeloy Village Hall (SA62 6LJ) –
for conditions of 18/0915/PA

Location plan, building marked in red

Building plan with compass points for subsequent caption referencing

Interior of Building

In all subsequent images, the tongue and groove panelling can be used as a dimensional scale (6-inch centres)

Each panel is six inches / 150mm wide

Looking to the east

The raised area at the east, presumably used as an altar area

Looking to the west end with vestry door to right

Close up of roof trusses

South side

Window details on south

North side

Old north door and windows

Close up of interior eaves details

Door into vestry on north side and entrance lobby on vestry east face

Vestry fireplace, north side

South side of vestry with entrance lobby

Old electrical fittings

Exterior of building

Moving clockwise around building from north...

North face

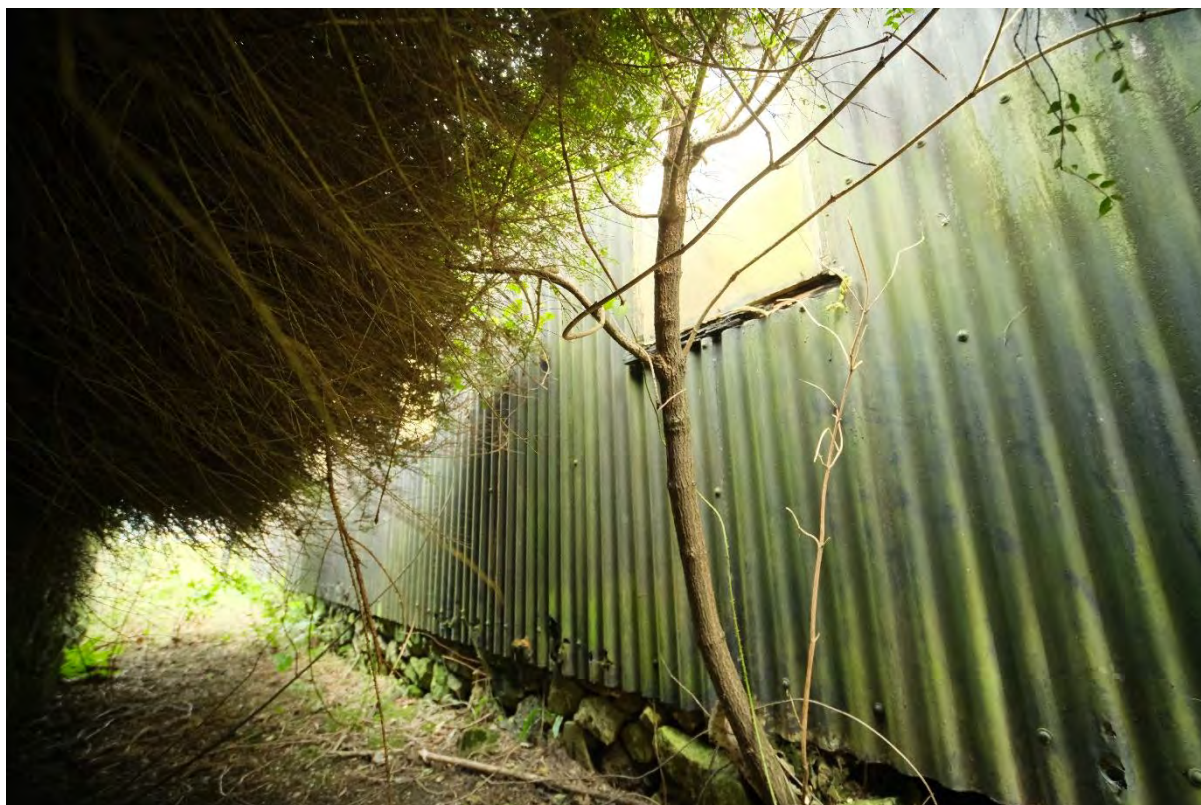

North east face – front door

North east face – front door detail

East face

South east

South east

South west face

North west

West face – vestry to left

North west - vestry extension

North – vestry extension

North – vestry extension (cont)

North – door to east side of vestry

Roof detail

Roof details - vestry extension