| Advice (If the proposal is considered to be inappropriate at this location please provide an explanation) | PRN33996 PEN-ROCK ROMAN ROAD SN66633828 A segment of the Roman road RR62c (PRN51972) from Llandovery to Pumsaint, identified as a cropmark in pasture from aerial photographs where the modern road has diverged slightly to the north of the line of the Roman road. A cluster of probable roadside quarries associated with the road is located at SN66583829. To the west, the Roman and modern road lines converge between SN66483837 and SN66013836 from where the Roman road continues straight across fields as a trackway to SN65793891. After a short stretch of convergence to SN65673902, the roads again diverge, with the Roman road changing direction to a more northerly straight course while the modern road meanders. | | PRN51972 ROMAN ROAD SN71673785 The route of Roman road RR62c from Llandovery to Pumsaint and on to Llanfair Clydogau based on cropmark and earthwork evidence plotted from aerial photographs. This route replaces the earlier suggested route (PRN3420).DS.2004.11.11. PRN39103 BWLCH CEFN SARTH POST MEDIEVAL EARTHWORK SN67983760 Two linear terraces cut into the N facing slope just S of the present A482 Llanwrda - Lampeter road. The terraces are on two levels, the upper terrace is c.6m wide and the lower terrace is slightly narrower, c.4-5m wide. The lower terrace is up to 2m lower than the upper terrace in some places. The terraces probably represent the line of the former 18th century pre-turnpike road and possibly the line of the Roman road from Llandovery to Pumpsaint. NP 1999 PRN130882 GOLEUGOED-UCHAF POST MEDIEVAL WELL SN6762337593 Well recorded on 1st Edition Ordnance Survey Map. A. Powell 2024. PRN108004 POST MEDIEVAL MILEPOST SN6695038020 A milepost on the turnpike road south of Lampeter. Shown on the Ordnance Survey Old Series mapping, Volume VI, pp. 70. Marked as no. 8. With evidence of two sections of possible Roman Road (PRN33996, PRN39103) and the purported route (PRN51972) running through the proposed boundary, we recommend a site visit be carried out to discuss the planting proposals and to establish if the course of the Roman Road can be confirmed. Please contact Henneb Heritage Management Dyfed Region to arrange a site visit. |
