This compartment lies within the Essential Setting (shown in light green) of the Golden Grove Grade II* Registered Parkland which is described in the Register of Historic Parks & Gardens (Cadw, PGW (Dy) 10(CAM)). Compartment B

The western part of this compartment (shown in dark green on the map above) lies within the Golden Grove Registered II* Historic Park and Garden (PGW (Dy) 10 (CAM)). PRN 118200, an old clay pit, is also recorded within this area.

We recommend that Cadw is consulted on those areas which lie within the Golden Grove Registered II* Parkland and Essential Setting. We also welcome opportunities to see more of the historic parkland of Golden Grove to be restored through sympathetic felling / restocking. Care should be taken during forestry operations not to degrade any surviving historic parkland features, such as those marked on the maps above, but also those as yet unrecorded, such as boundary walls, earthworks or other structures.

There is always the possibility for previously unknown remains to survive within this area of which we have no knowledge. Should further archaeological features or finds be identified it is important that Dyfed Archaeological Trust Heritage Management is informed and further information and advice can then be provided as required.
