Dear Bev,

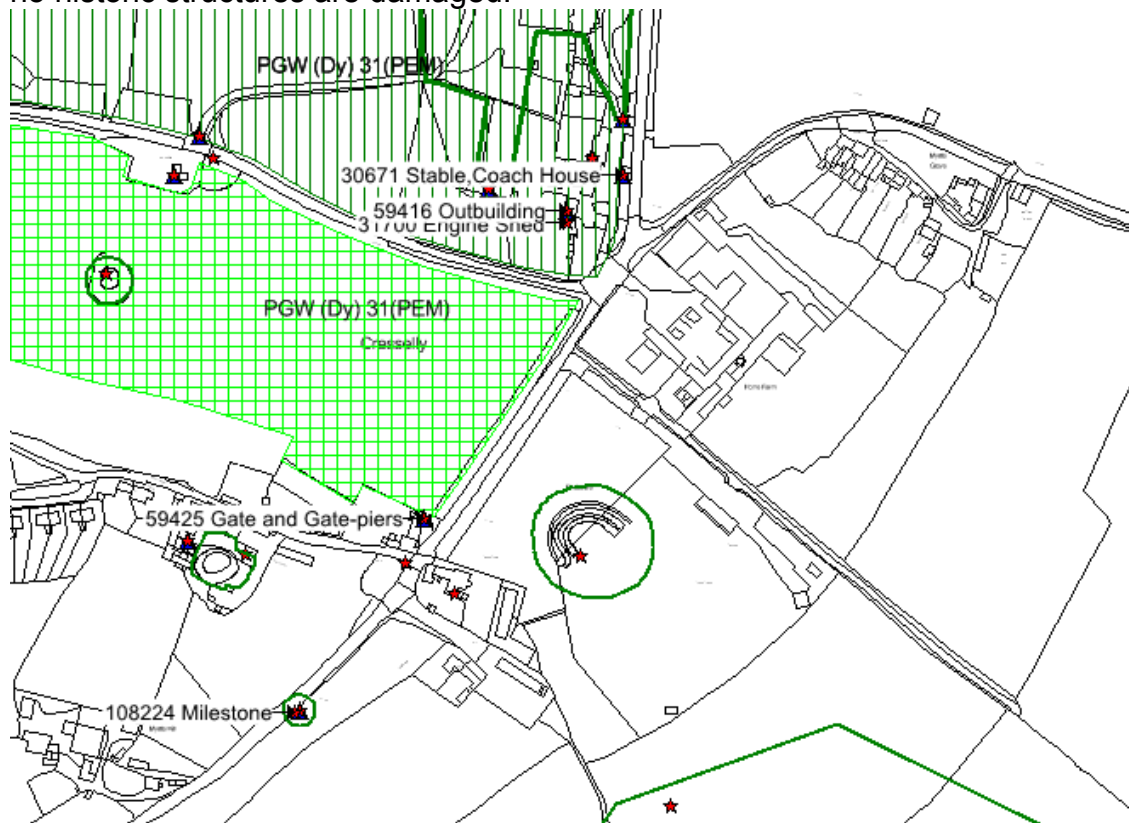

FLA 335 19-20 Cresselly Estate

Thank you for your consultation. I have checked your maps against the regional Historic Environment Record (HER) and other sources and have the following comments;

Individual tree felling around Cresselly. Some trees to be felled lie with the registered historic parkland of Cresselly PGW (Dy) 31(PEM) shown with dark green shading on the map below, and the essential setting in light green. Cadw should be consulted on these works.

Tree felling elsewhere does not appear to impact on any recorded features, however historic boundary walls or associated structures may be affected. We would urge that the removal of trees is undertaken with caution to ensure that no historic structures are damaged.

There is always the possibility for previously unknown remains to survive within this area of which we have no knowledge. Should further archaeological features or finds be identified it is important that Dyfed Archaeological Trust Heritage Management is informed and further information and advice can then be provided as required.
