PRN	Summary	Type	NGR
47114	Wide stone-walled trackway, c.1 metre high, running from past cottage PRN 47124 to the north of the farmstead, through the farmyard, past the stables (PRN 47121) towards the valley to the south.	Trackway	SN26332403

	The stones that form the banks either side of the trackway are laid in a herringbone pattern and survive well in the section of track to the north of the farmstead. It is shown on the 1848 tithe map for Llanwinio parish.
47123	Quarry cut into the side of trackway (PRN 47114), measuring around 14 metres in length.	Quarry	SN2633324118

The current condition of these features is unknown; however they may survive as ruins, earthworks or below ground archaeology. Felling operations should avoid causing damage in these areas.

There is always the possibility for previously unknown remains to survive within this area of which we have no knowledge. Should further archaeological features or finds be identified it is important that Dyfed Archaeological Trust Heritage Management is informed and further information and advice can then be provided as required.
