

YNYS MON

AMLWCH

, Queen Street, Church of St. Elan

5/11/9

Nat. Grid: 442929      Ref: 5/9 (sq. 15)

- B Parish Church Officially held to have been erected in 1800 (though Bingley recorded the existing building in 1798). Done. Debased Gothic nave and square-headed chancel, with advanced tower in the facade. The tower combines Gothic and classical motifs, having a pointed-arched entrance and rose-window above, and a cornice surmounted with balustrades and pinnacles. Contains a few mural tablets from an earlier church.