Outstanding Conservation Area

- II Like Chantry House, with which it forms a detached pair, it is perhaps originally of style and period of Victoria Terrace, c1835, but may be later rather than merely altered. 3 storeys. Pebble-dashed, with stone dressings. Slate roof. Gabled front. 2-storey canted bay with French windows. Windows in gable, of 2 light with arched heads (and with keystone) on pier, has curved sashes with griffin bars (and decorative metal grill on sill). Pierced bargeboards, finial and pendant. Metal balcony on 1st floor, with colonettes and gilded spandrels. Partly included for group value.
