F Site Notes/List or Scheduling Description

Lengthman's cottage. M-LC19. Coursed rubble sandstone. Pitched slate roofs with stone and brick gable chimneys to earlier section of cottage. Two storeys. Rectangular plan, elonged by later extension in same style. Single storey outshut at right angles to original block with stone chimney and corrugated iron roof. Irregularly spaced windows to both storeys. First floor windows still wooden casements with brick heads and stone sills. Ground floor windows replaced with MC20 top-opening casements. Gable end has larger brick headed entrance, now blocked, and first storey casement. Cottage now entered through outshut doorway.

The house is uninhabited, and appears to be used for storage and workshop purposes:
